

We are OneStirling

The University of Stirling and the University of Stirling Students' Union believe in equality for all. No one should be denied opportunities because of age, disability, gender, race, religion or belief, or sexual orientation.

OneStirling is an initiative to outline our commitment to equality and diversity in every area of the University's activities and to ensure that students and staff are treated with respect at all times.

// As a third year Nursing student, the expectations are now really high. It can be intimidating, but it is driving me even further to become the best Mental Health nurse that I can be. Taking this course has been one of the most important things I have ever done and has helped focus and shape me as a person. //

Chris Quinn
BSc in Nursing (Mental Health)

// I was always interested in Nursing and wanted to make a small difference to people I work with. The University of Stirling is fantastic and offers a lot of help and support. I am loving the course. //

Lisa McClement
BSc in Nursing (Adult)

// The reason I decided to study teaching is because of how rewarding it is to be able to teach a child skills that they will use throughout their whole life. The University of Stirling is also extremely helpful and offers so many different opportunities. //

Mitchell Finlay
BSc (Hons) in Environmental Geography and Professional Education (Secondary)

// Studying Primary Education at Stirling is great. The structure of the course allows you to settle into university life before easing you into your placements. I would definitely recommend it to anyone thinking about a career in teaching, as Stirling gives you the tools and support to become a successful teacher. //

Greg Mihill
BA (Hons) Professional Education (Primary) with a specialism in Early Years

// I have thoroughly enjoyed the course. The link between the classroom knowledge and the practical skills acquired on placements has given me the confidence and experience to apply and work as a newly qualified social worker. All the staff and tutors have supported me along this journey and the ability to share it with a great group of fellow students was the icing on the cake. //

Matt James
Graduate of the MSc in Social Work Studies